

The move to repeal the ban on media cross-ownership is one of the scariest things I have ever heard. If this repeal goes through, we further our country towards an Orwellian distopia, where it's citizens are told by a singular, wealthy power what we are to believe and think. The large mego corporations will have so much influence, that there will be no accountability for their actions ever. DO NOT REPEAL THIS!!